PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents/Carers,

This week our school have been thinking of a new name for the red letter.

Academy Council made a video for the whole school to watch to explain why we wanted to change it.

Then each class came up with their top answers.

The teachers got it down to the final 2. Unfortunately, Academy Council did not agree with the teachers, so we went back and forth until there was a unanimous agreement!

The letter will now be called Incorrect Choice Letter, although ICL for ease.

I am so impressed with Academy Council's resilience to continue discussions until they were happy with the name, constantly taking into account the thoughts of the children that they were representing—what a fantastic democratic process!

We would like to tell you about...

A huge well done to Grace who was awarded a medal for karate last week.

The medal is rather heavy too!
